jured by the continued dry weather and by the frost Friday night.

We understand the Mohawk Medibad.

was unable to get here last Saturday, as advertised, but will be here Saturday, of this week, without fail.

G. N. Titus has been appointed superintendent of the fruit department of the Nemaha County Fair. A better selection could not have been made.

Walt Hadlock bought a new wagon eight tombstones at the head of the graves of old soldiers last Saturday.

There are seventeen old soldiers buried

The supper given at the residence of the Methodist ladies was a very successful affair in every respect. Something over $17 was realized.

The Ladies Aid Society of M. E.
Church will give a "Crazy Tea" June 2d, from 5 to 7 o'clock. Supper 10 cents. Strawberries will also be provided for those who wish them.
Everybody invited.

A heavy frost fell all over the west Friday night of this week. In this section little damage was done, but farther west and north corn was cut down, much garden stuff killed, and fruit badly injured.

B. F. McIninch, of London precinct, gave us a pleasant call Thursday. He had just completed hauling to market about 3,000 bushels of corn, which he sold to A. R. McCandless & Sons—the first corn he has sold at Nemaha City for many years.

The members of the Auburn Y. P.
S. C. E. of the Christian church drove down to Nemaha City last Sunday afternoon, and met with the society of this place. A very interesting and instructive session was held, and the society here was greatly encouraged by the visit.

Dr. Kay is one democrat who is not hankering after an office. He was appointed a member of the pension examiners for this county, but declined the honor. Dr. Gant, of Auburn, also declined. Dr. Oppermann and a doctor from Julian were appointed in their place.

The Great American Show was here last Saturday. This company, contrary to the custom, fulfilled about all the features advertised we understand.
The balloon ascension attracted great attention. The balloon descended south of town. On account of a rip in the parachute he did not leap with it but came down with the balloon.

We are assured by the people of Beatrice that the Beatrice University to be started by Mrs. Allie A. Minick is now almost a certainty. One thousand and lots are to be sold at $125. each.
Over half of these have been sold.
Mrs. Minick puts up a fine building, costing about $100,000, suitably equipped for a university, and also endows it with a goodly sum. Parties wishing to invest can learn full particulars by writing Mrs. Minick at Beatrice, where she is now living.

J. F. Prentiss, of Pawnee City, special agent of the New York Life Insurance Company, was in town Thursday. Mr. Prentiss is the champion life insurance agent of the United States, and if he can't talk a man into insuring there is no use in any one else trying it. He has the advantage, too, of working for a company that everybody knows is second to none.

FOR SALE.—A residence property in Nemaha City. Small house, in good repair. Inquire at this office.

Ginderella.

The pupils of the primary department of the Nemaha City schools will repeat their presentation of this pleasing fairy-like drama at Hoover's opera house on Saturday evening, June 2d, 1894. The drama will be followed by a tambourine drill, executed by twelve girls from the primary department. Those who saw the play and drill previously will need no urging to attend again. Those who did not see it should not fail to be present at one of the best entertainments ever given in Nemaha City.

The republican state convention will be held at Omaha August 22d. The representation is based on the vote cast for I. M. Raymond for regent last year, giving one delegate at large and one for each 100 votes or major fraction thereof. This will make the number of delegates 958.

The Sanitarium, at Lincoln, is attracting considerable attention for the remarkable cures of rheumatism, nervous prostration, skin diseases, etc., by the use of the salt water baths.
Analysis of the water shows that in medicinal qualities it is only equalled by one of the celebrated springs in the United States—Saratoga Springs in New York—exceeding the Hot Springs of Arkansas and South Dakota. Many prominent citizens have given the highest recommendations of the curative qualities of the water. If you are troubled with any chronic ailment, write to Dr. Everetts, manager of the Sulpho-Saline Bath Co., Lincoln, or go up and see for yourselves.

Fine Photos.

Clinkinbeard, the Auburn photographer, has recently removed to the rooms over Thompson & Peery's store, where he has fitted up one of the finest studios to be found in the state. The room has been remodelled, provided with new lights and furnished especially for use as a gallery, and with all conveniences and modern appliances he is prepared to turn out a better class of work than before. The old Huston stand was found unfit to do the class of work he wished to turn out, and a change was deemed necessary. Don't visit Auburn without paying a visit to the new studio. Remember the place, over Thompson & Peery's grocery store.
